Re: Request to be an Advisor for an Upcoming Book

Dear Mr. Aguirre,

This letter is in response to your January 27, 2012, request for approval to be an advisor for an upcoming book, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to be an advisor is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive matter;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your past FBI experience in the upcoming book as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also please also provide a statement that the views expressed in the upcoming book are yours and not those of the FBI. When completed, the FBI requests the upcoming book be forwarded for FBI review.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Participation at Alumni Intel Conference

Dear Mr. Collins,

This letter is in response to your June 25, 2012, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at an alumni intel conference, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

PREPUB-2320

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also please provide a clear statement that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Re: Manuscript: "The Color of Deception"

Dear Mr. Cortese,

This letter is in response to your request of March 5, 2012, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your manuscript, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your manuscript with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);

Your request to speak and your PowerPoint slides are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

PREPUB-2345

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of the information;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising your audience that the opinions expressed in the internship presentation are yours and not those of the FBI.

Re: Novel: "The Face Behind Your 7-Eleven Counter"

Dear Ms. Grima Santry,

This letter is in response to your request of March 7, 2012, for review of the above referenced novel for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your novel, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your novel with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);

Dear Mr. Leiman,

This letter is in response to your January 25, 2012, request for approval to participate in a public speaking engagement at Hamilton College, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

PREPUB-2382

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive matter
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

Re: Request to be Interviewed for a Book

Dear Mr. Marston,

This letter is in response to your June 4, 2012, request for approval to participate in an interview for a book, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to participate in the interview is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

Dear Ms. Osborn,

This letter is in response to your request of November 29, 2011, for review of the above referenced television script for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your television script, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your television script with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);
- MAOP §1-27; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- MAOP §1-16.2; 5 C.F.R. §2635.807 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3; (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

Dear Mr. Perry,

This letter is in response to your February 14, 2012, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at Columbia law school, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

PREPUB-2450

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of another's work;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also please provide a clear statement that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Re: Biography and Request to Speak at Cornell University

Dear Ms. Rudman,

This letter is in response to your August 20, 2012, request for approval of your biography and to participate in a speaking engagement at Cornell University, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your biography and request to speak are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

PREPUB-2457

- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;
- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

Also please also provide a clear statement that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your syllabus, as presented. However, we do advise when conducting the mock investigations mentioned on page two of the syllabus, please avoid details of any FBI investigative policies or procedures.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your syllabus with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your syllabus must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);
- MAOP §1-27; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);

-MAOP §1-16.2; 5 C.F.R. §2635.807 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
-MAOP §20-28.3; (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter and your work have been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Dear Ms. Walton,

This letter is in response to your request of April 24, 2012 for approval of a PowerPoint presentation for English 402, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your PowerPoint slides are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

PREPUB-2504

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive me
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also please provide a clear statement that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.
